PRIVACY - TERMS OF USE (updated in January, 2011)

By using the Vitality Concepts Corporation "VCC" web site, you agree to the following Terms of Use. If you do not agree to all of these terms, please do not use this web site. VCC reserves the right to change, modify, add, or delete portions of these Terms of Use at any time. Your continued use of this web site following any changes to the Terms of Use will mean that you accept those changes. Please refer to the date listed above to determine when the last changes were made.

How we use Personal Information/Privacy:

This web site is owned and operated by VCC, a California corporation. By using this site, you agree that VCC may monitor your use of this web site and may use the results of such monitoring without limitation.

During your visit to our web site, we may request and collect personal information from you, such as your name, email address, physical address, telephone number and any other personal information you share with us. The information you will be asked to provide to us is voluntary only; you will always have the possibility to opt out by not providing the information if you so choose. The information we gather from you is used either in connection with your interest in services offered by VCC, or if you have questions or concerns you would like to share with VCC. Some non-identifiable information is gathered from you for statistics or a marketing survey.

VCC does not disclose, give, sell, or transfer any personal information to third parties for non-VCC use. Personally identifiable information may be collected from visitors to our site and provided in an aggregate form to other parties within the VCC network for marketing, advertising or other similar uses.

We provide several ways to e-mail us with questions or to fill-in and/or submit forms as you navigate through our site. Please note that any information sent through an e-mail message is unsecured and can be seen on computers which transfer data from your computer to VCC. Forms containing personal or medical data are transmitted securely which is indicated by "https" in the address line or by a closed lock icon at the bottom of the screen. We recommend that you do not email sensitive personal health information via unsecured server. Should you choose to provide information in this manner, you do so at your own risk.

Cookies:

Please be aware that your browser must be enabled to accept cookies in order for you to use certain areas of our site. A cookie is a piece of text that a web server stores on your hard drive so that it can be retrieved later. It helps us determine how many readers visit our web site, whether those readers are repeat visitors, whether you have already used our feedback comments link, or the status of your shopping cart in online ordering. We do not use this information for any other purpose and we do not make it available to third parties. All of the information we obtain from you is stored in our database and may be retrieved by people who are gathering that information. A cookie containing your unique ID is all that is stored on your computer.

Copyright:

You may not copy, reproduce, republish, post, retransmit, or distribute in any way any of the information or materials in this web site without the prior written consent of VCC. To request such permission, send an email message to mail@vitalityconcepts.com including your name, address, the information you are requesting to distribute, and the purpose for that distribution. You may download a copy of the materials on this web site on a single computer for personal, noncommercial use, but only if you do not remove any copyright, trademark, or other proprietary notices from the materials you download. You agree to indemnify VCC if you infringe on any of VCC's copyrights or trademarks. You may not restrict or inhibit any other user from using this web site.
